

EDITORIAL FROM EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

The Research Journal of Management Sciences promotes the development and dissemination of advances in the field of management by maintaining the highest standards of intellectual thoughts combined with practical relevance.

The vision of this journal is to build its position as the flagship journal of management discipline. This can be achieved by thoughtful leadership, organization and efforts of all the readers and contributors. We are committed to make this Research Journal of Management Sciences the most desired destination for the best research in all disciplines of Management.

We expect that the papers we publish will lead and reflect the field as it grows and evolves. We look forward to continuing work with all prospective Research Journal of Management Sciences authors in this existing journal.

Some highlights of the Research Journal of Management Sciences.

- I. It aims to publish high quality original manuscripts dealing with various streams of management in its broadest sense.
- II. Highlighting important implications for business practice.
- III. To feature manuscripts which are international in scope as well as papers investigating domestic issues with global relevance.
- IV. To cover a broad spectrum of organizations.

With this hope and vision, I would like to wish all the authors and readers a tremendous relationship with this upcoming journal. Good bye and best wishes.
